COMMENCEMENT

The University of North Carolina
at Chapel Hill

MESSAGE from the CHANCELLOR

Welcome to your Tar Heel graduation. Each of you has accomplished so much in your years at Carolina, and we treasure this opportunity to celebrate with you as you commence the next steps of your life journey.

Families and friends of the graduates, no one could believe more in their capacity and character than you. On behalf of the Carolina faculty and staff, thank you for sharing your student with us, and congratulations as you also make a life transition.

Undergraduate, graduate and professional students, I hope that you find a moment this weekend to recall your Carolina years and realize how your time here has prepared you for your future. You have learned the tools to capture and shape your own transitions. You have developed enduring intellectual skills that will help you imagine a future you cannot yet see. Most importantly, you have developed the personal connections that will be a lasting part of your life. Carolina has been your home for a few short years, but you will always be part of the Carolina family.

Graduates, you may feel uncertain about the next steps ahead. That is to be expected. But I urge you to "trust in the you of now," as the saying goes, and I promise that you will find your path and your passion.

Please keep in touch and visit Chapel Hill. We will be here, eager to help and applaud your success. Congratulations!

Carol L. Folt

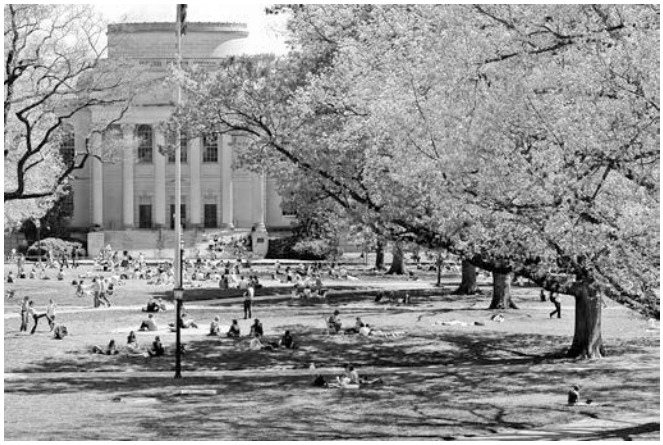
ALMA MATER

The words of "Hark the Sound," UNC–Chapel Hill's alma mater, were written in 1897 by William Starr Myers, a graduating senior. The Glee Club director asked Myers to put words to the tune "Amici," and the song was first performed on June 2, 1897, as part of the Glee Club's Commencement performance in Gerrard Hall.

Soon the song was almost forgotten. When a University quartet tried a few years later to remember the words, they could recollect only the first verse and the chorus of Myers' original version. Two members of the quartet, Charles S. Mangum and Charles T. Woollen, added two verses to the one they remembered. Mangum later became a professor in the School of Medicine, and Woollen worked as the University's business manager and comptroller.



HARK THE SOUND

Hark, the sound of Tar Heel voices
Ringing clear and true,
Singing Carolina's praises,
Shouting N.C.U.!

Hail to the brightest star of all!
Clear its radiance shine!
Carolina, priceless gem,
Receive all praises thine.

For Your Information

The Commencement ceremony will be captioned on the video screens.*

Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of this program's content. Any omissions or errors are unintentional.

This Commencement program is printed prior to administering final examinations. Therefore, the inclusion of degree candidates' names in this program does not represent certification that candidates have satisfactorily completed degree requirements.

Diplomas for undergraduate, master of science and master of arts degrees will be printed after Commencement and mailed to graduates. Graduates with professional, doctoral and master's degrees that contain an area of study in the degree, such as Master of Accounting, may receive their diplomas in a special departmental or school ceremony. Or they may pick up a diploma from the Office of the Registrar in the Student and Academic Services building from 11:30 a.m. until 2 p.m. on Commencement Sunday. Remaining diplomas will be available in the Registrar's Office through May 31, after which time they will be mailed to each graduate's home address as listed in ConnectCarolina.

CAROL L. FOLT

Chancellor

Carol L. Folt took office as Carolina's 11th chancellor and first woman leader on July 1, 2013.

An internationally recognized environmental scientist and award-winning teacher, Folt served as interim president of Dartmouth College during 2012-2013. She also was Dartmouth Professor of Biological Sciences at the prestigious Ivy League institution.

Folt was formally installed as chancellor on University Day, October 12th, which marked Carolina's 220th birthday. She says the transformative power of public higher education is flourishing at the University.

In her installation address, Folt laid out an ambitious agenda for the future. "I believe that Carolina can be the leader in shaping the path for the great public universities in America. By preserving excellence and innovation, access and affordability, and a deep commitment to the state, we can gather strength to innovate and meet new challenges."

An Akron, Ohio, native, Folt is a proud product of public higher education. Her parents were the first in their families to attend college. She worked her way through the University of California at Santa Barbara as a waitress, earning a bachelor's degree in aquatic biology in 1976 and a master's degree in biology two years later. She received her doctorate in ecology in 1982 from the University of California at Davis and did postdoctoral work at the W.K. Kellogg Biological Station of Michigan State University.

After joining the Dartmouth faculty in 1983, Folt rose steadily through the academic and administrative ranks. She was named associate director of Dartmouth's Toxic Metals Research Program in 1998, and two years later became associate director of the Center for Environmental Health Sciences. In 2001, she was appointed dean of graduate studies and associate dean of the faculty for interdisciplinary programs. She was promoted to dean of the faculty in 2004, tapped as acting provost in 2009, and named provost in 2010.

As interim president, Folt helped identify opportunities for greater collaboration across schools to enhance academic quality and competitiveness, oversaw growth in global partnerships, and augmented support for faculty, student and community entrepreneurship and technological innovation. She spearheaded a year-long focus on the arts, co-education and the future of higher education. As provost, she led the first strategic planning process, engaging hundreds of faculty, staff and students. Following the economic downturn, she co-led efforts to resolve a $100-million budget gap.

Folt's research has focused on the effects of dietary mercury and arsenic on human and ecosystem health, salmonid fisheries management and restoration, and global climate change. She and colleagues developed new technologies to assess mercury exposure and formed regional, national and international partnerships to shape public policy for safer waters. She is a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Folt is married to David Peart, a professor of biological sciences at Dartmouth. They have two adult children, Noah and Tessa.

Speaker and Honorary Degree Recipient

ATUL ATMARAM GAWANDE

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE

Atul Gawande, M.D., M.P.H. is a surgeon, writer and public health researcher. He practices general and endocrine surgery at Brigham and Women's Hospital in Boston. He is a professor in the Department of Health Policy and Management at the Harvard School of Public Health, professor of surgery at Harvard Medical School and director of Ariadne Labs, a joint center for health systems innovation. He is also the founder and chair of Lifebox, an international not-for-profit that implements systems and technologies to reduce surgical deaths globally.

Gawande has been a staff writer for the New Yorker magazine since 1998. His June 2009 New Yorker essay comparing two Texas towns with dramatically different healthcare costs showed how more expensive care could be worse care, reflecting practices performed more for business reasons than medical needs. The article changed public understanding about the broken incentives in healthcare. In addition, it won a National Magazine Award and was hailed as the best explanation to date about why our healthcare is so expensive and what can be done about it.

Gawande has also written three best-selling books. "Complications" examines the fallibility of doctors, the mysteries of medicine and the unknowns of the field. It was a finalist for the National Book Award in 2002. "Better" was selected as one of the ten best books of 2007 by Amazon.com. In it, Gawande discusses three virtues most important for success in medicine: diligence, doing right and ingenuity. His third book, "The Checklist Manifesto: How to Get Things Right," discusses the importance of organization and pre-planning. Gawande has won two National Magazine Awards, AcademyHealth's Impact Award for the highest research impact on health care, and a MacArthur Fellowship, and he has been named one of the hundred most influential thinkers by Foreign Policy and Time magazines.

Honorary Degree Recipient

MARJORIE BRYAN BUCKLEY

DOCTOR OF LAWS

Marjorie Buckley is a former teacher, lifelong volunteer and visionary philanthropist. A native of Goldsboro, N.C., Buckley graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Carolina in 1962 with an A.B. in Education. She began her career as a teacher in Raleigh and the American School in London and as a research assistant at the University of Melbourne, Australia, School of Education. Buckley led the effort in 1965–67 to establish the North Carolina Outward Bound School which has program areas in Western North Carolina, the Outer Banks, Florida, and Patagonia, South America. Annually, it serves on average 2,000 students with life-changing wilderness programs and 4,000 students with urban programs through a partnership with the Atlanta Public School System. It also provides courses designed for practicing teachers and, among its scholarship opportunities for students at Carolina, courses for students earning a Master of Education and an annual course for incoming student body leaders.

Buckley's support was instrumental in founding the Carolina Center for Public Service. Dedicated in 1999, the center focuses on public service initiatives throughout the University and fosters a service ethic and practice among our students, faculty and staff. In honor of Buckley's father, Robert Emmet Bryan Sr. (Class of 1926), the center awards five Bryan Public Service Awards each year to recognize faculty, staff and students for their public service work on behalf of the University. Buckley has also established an endowment to support the center and its activities. Elsewhere on campus, she has endowed the Joseph P. Archie Jr. Eminent Professorship in Medicine, which focuses on autoimmune disease, and the Thomas James Distinguished Professorship Fund in Experiential Education. Buckley served on the Board of Visitors, the founding Board of Directors of the School of Education Foundation, the Carolina Bicentennial and Carolina First Campaign Steering Committees, and the founding executive committee of the Carolina Women's Leadership Council. Her honors include the General Alumni Association's Distinguished Service Medal (2004), the Board of Trustees' William Richardson Davie Award (2005), St. Mary's School Distinguished Alumnae Award (2010), the Governor of North Carolina's Order of the Long Leaf Pine (2011), and the Kurt Hahn Award (1992), the highest form of recognition conferred by Outward Bound in the United States.

Honorary Degree Recipient

BIDDY MARTIN

DOCTOR OF LAWS

Biddy Martin is the 19th president of Amherst College, a position she has held since 2011. Previously, she served as provost of Cornell University and chancellor of the University of Wisconsin-Madison. A native of rural Virginia, Martin was her high school's valedictorian and set a school scoring record for basketball. She graduated Phi Beta Kappa from the College of William and Mary, and earned a Ph.D. in German literature from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

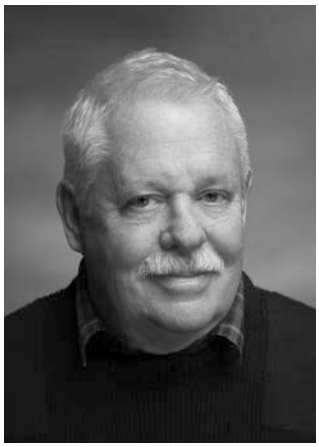
Martin is the author of many scholarly articles and two books, "Woman and Modernity: The Lifestyles of Lou Andreas-Salomé" (1991) and "Femininity Played Straight: The Significance of Being Lesbian" (1996). Her record of teaching and scholarship in German studies and women's studies has earned her membership in the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, but it is as an administrative leader in higher education that she has made her most enduring contributions. At a time when public higher education has experienced repeated budget cuts and its role in the body politic questioned, Martin has been a passionate leader and spokesperson for the importance of a liberal education in a democratic society. At Cornell she worked on initiatives to enhance recruitment and training of women in the sciences and tackled the question of access and financial aid with the goal of enabling first-generation college students to graduate debt-free. At UW-Madison, she led successful efforts to increase need-based financial aid, improve undergraduate education and enhance research. She also launched the Madison Initiative for Undergraduates to enhance student advising, introduce innovations in undergraduate programs and increase faculty diversity.

In the face of a drastic decline in state funding, Martin led an unsuccessful effort to achieve institutional autonomy in order to secure Wisconsin's future as one of the nation's leading public institutions of higher education. During her relatively short tenure at Amherst she has ushered the college through institutional soul-searching following a series of reports of a culture of sexual misconduct among undergraduates. The New York Times commented that "no college leader in the country was as well prepared to face this controversy as Biddy Martin."

Honorary Degree Recipient

ARMISTEAD JONES MAUPIN JR.

DOCTOR OF LETTERS



Armistead Maupin, Carolina Class of 1966, grew up in Raleigh. As an undergraduate here he wrote a column for the Daily Tar Heel and was elected vice president of the senior class. After graduation, Maupin worked at WRAL-TV in Raleigh before enlisting in the United States Navy. He served as an officer in the Mediterranean and with the River Patrol Force in Vietnam. Returning home in 1970, he won a top award from the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge under the sponsorship of Senator Jesse Helms. Maupin worked as a reporter in Charleston, S.C., and then with the Associated Press in San Francisco. In 1976, while at the San Francisco Chronicle, he launched the groundbreaking work that would propel his literary career for almost four decades. "Tales of the City" began as a serialized novel—perhaps the most successful example of that genre since Charles Dickens—and eventually became a sequence of nine globally bestselling books. In 1994, "Armistead Maupin's Tales of the City" became a controversial PBS miniseries whose vocal opponents included Maupin's former champion Jesse Helms. The miniseries earned record high ratings and a Peabody Award, broadcasting's most prestigious honor. Maupin's other novels include "Maybe the Moon" and "The Night Listener." Today, when same-sex relationships are commonly part of popular culture, it is perhaps difficult to remember the way in which "Tales of the City" empowered its early readers and shattered barriers. More than any other work of fiction, the Tales novels set a precedent for the inclusion of gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender people in mainstream American literature as folks who experience the same foibles, follies and desire for love that lie at the heart of the human condition everywhere.

Honorary Degree Recipient

BEVERLY EAVES PERDUE

DOCTOR OF LAWS

Beverly Eaves Perdue served as the 73rd governor of North Carolina, having been elected to that position in 2008 following two terms as the 32nd lieutenant governor. Previously, she had served in both houses of the General Assembly, including five terms in the Senate where she rose to leadership as the senior budget writer. She is the first woman to have held either of North Carolina's highest elective offices.

Perdue was born and raised in Grundy, Va., where her father worked as a coal miner and eventually came to own several companies in the coal business. Perdue earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Kentucky and both a master's degree in education and a doctoral degree in education administration from the University of Florida. She is one of only two North Carolina governors to hold an earned doctorate. Before entering state politics, Perdue worked as a public school teacher and as director of geriatric services at a community hospital in New Bern. As a state senator she championed passage of the 2000 Michael K. Hooker Higher Education Facilities Financing Act. This bond referendum passed by more than 73 percent of the statewide vote in all 100 counties and provided needed resources for critical infrastructure improvements at the state's community colleges and public universities.

As lieutenant governor, Perdue cast the deciding vote to establish the North Carolina Education Lottery which has directed millions to the day-to-day operations of the public school system. As governor during the most difficult economic times in decades she maintained the state's triple-A credit rating and worked tirelessly to preserve North Carolina's commitment to education from kindergarten to college. She oversaw North Carolina's preparation and response to Hurricane Irene in 2011; supported the recommendation of the Governor's Task Force on Eugenics Compensation that victims receive compensation; expanded the Pre-K program across the state; and granted full pardons of innocence to the Wilmington 10.

In 2013, Perdue served as a resident fellow at the Harvard Institute of Politics and was later named a distinguished visiting fellow at Duke University's Sanford School of Public Policy, where she also serves as an advisor to Duke's Center for Child and Family Policy. Currently she is founder and chair of the Digital Learning Institute, funded by the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation and the Carnegie Corporation of New York.

Honorary Degree Recipient

ANNE FIROR SCOTT

DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS

Anne Firor Scott, a pioneering historian of American women whose efforts helped open the doors of the history profession to female scholars, is William K. Boyd Professor Emerita of History at Duke University.

In the 1960s and 1970s, Scott was a founder of the field of U.S. women's history, and especially of southern women's history. Her path-breaking book "The Southern Lady: From Pedestal to Politics" (1970) moved women from the margins to the center of southern history. Later works explored women's biography, voluntary organizations, education and relationships across racial lines. Scott's scholarship drove home the simple yet transformative point that we cannot understand American history while ignoring half of the nation's people—an idea captured in her 1984 essay collection "Making the Invisible Woman Visible," and reinforced in her 1992 volume, "Natural Allies: Women's Associations in American History."

Inspired to study women reformers after working for the National League of Women Voters in the 1940s, Scott had earned her Ph.D. at Harvard/Radcliffe in 1958. In 1961, she took a history position at Duke until a "suitable replacement" for a departing man could be found. By 1980 she was William K. Boyd Professor of History and the first woman to chair Duke's history department. She would go on to serve as president of the Organization of American Historians (1983–84) and then the Southern Historical Association (1989), and was elected to the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in 2004.

Scott reflected upon her professional journey in her 1984 essay "An Historian's Odyssey," and profiled her female scholarly forebears in "Unheard Voices: The First Historians of Southern Women" (1993). Scott's seminal "The Southern Lady," meanwhile, has never been out of print. Its central questions continue to be debated—while Scott and the dozens of historians she mentored expanded inquiry into crucial questions of how gender, race and class have combined to shape women's lives. In 2008, at the age of 87, she published the edited collection, "Pauli Murray and Caroline Ware: Forty Years of Letters in Black and White."

A MESSAGE to CAROLINA'S NEWEST ALUMNI

Congratulations! You are now graduates of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Let your General Alumni Association help you make a seamless transition from students to alumni — no matter where you find yourselves after graduation. Visit alumni.unc.edu/youngalumni.

GETTING STARTED

Don't miss out on special invitations and services. Call (877) 377-7125 or visit alumni.unc.edu/update to keep your official University record updated. Jump start your network with Carolina alumni — join the GAA's groups on Facebook and LinkedIn.

ALUMNI CAREER SERVICES

Networking is the most effective approach to finding a job. The GAA can connect you with more than 7,000 alumni volunteers in our Alumni Advisor Network who can help you explore career options.

GAA members from the Class of 2014 have unlimited access (phone, email or in person) to the GAA's certified career coach for one year following graduation. If you're thinking about grad school, GAA members also receive discounts on Kaplan prep courses.

FINDING OTHER TAR HEELS IN YOUR AREA

- Local Carolina Clubs can be found in nearly 100 cities around the globe. Socialize, network, cheer on the Heels and continue that spirit of Tar Heel service within your community.
- The GAA's Online Alumni Directory can help you develop a network like no other. The directory includes nearly 280,000 former Carolina students.

TRUSTED INFORMATION SOURCE

The "Carolina Alumni Review," the "Out of the Blue" e-newsletter, the GAA's Twitter feed and alumni.unc.edu can keep you updated on the University's achievements and challenges as well as what's going on in Chapel Hill.

Congratulations again. We hope you'll choose to join the nearly 67,000 GAA members who remain connected and help serve Carolina and our students — past, present and future. The GAA offers new grads a one-year membership for only $25 — a $20 savings off our annual dues rate. Or save $50 on life membership — only $32.25/month for 24 months.

THE CHANCELLOR'S MEDAL

The chancellor's medal, an emblem of the office of chancellor, is worn during the University's ceremonial occasions. The sterling silver disk, which is three inches in diameter and seven ounces Troy weight, was given to the University by John Sanders, professor emeritus and former director of the UNC Institute of Government, and his wife, Ann Beal Sanders. Modeled by sculptor Pete Hinton and bearing the University seal, it was first worn by Chancellor Paul Hardin during the 1994 University Day convocation. The medal was recently updated with a silver chain of office that includes thin rectangles engraved with the names and dates of service of previous UNC chancellors. It also features links made in the shape of the Old Well and the Davie Poplar leaves, both icons of the Carolina campus.

THE BICENTENNIAL STAFF

The faculty marshal carries the bicentennial staff while leading the faculty processional on ceremonial occasions such as Commencement and University Day. The staff, commissioned for the University's 1993 bicentennial celebration by John Sanders, professor emeritus and former director of the UNC Institute of Government, and his wife, Ann Beal Sanders, was modeled by sculptor Pete Hinton. It consists of a sterling silver three-inch-high replica of the Old Well mounted on a turned and tapered oak shaft. The shaft was made from timber salvaged from the 1822 section of Old West residence hall during its 1991–1993 renovation.

UNIVERSITY COLORS

As symbols of unity among Carolina students, alumni and fans, the school colors of light blue and white were first used around 1800 to distinguish between members of the Dialectic and Philanthropic Literary Societies. Throughout the 19th century, students were required to be members of either the Di or the Phi. The Di's color was light blue, and the Phi's was white.

At University commencements, balls and other social events, the student officials, managers and marshals wore the color of

CAROLINA ANNUAL FUND and SENIOR CAMPAIGN

Congratulations, graduates! There is no doubt that your experience at Carolina has included unparalleled opportunities and that your degree will open many doors for you in the future. As Carolina students, you have been touched every day by private gifts to Carolina that maintain and enhance the University's tradition of excellence. Annual gifts improve the lives of students, faculty and staff. From scholarships to new research buildings and equipment, to access to incredible performances at Memorial Hall, to more than 6 million volumes in the libraries across campus, private gifts have impacted every aspect of campus life.

You're invited to support UNC–Chapel Hill through the Senior Campaign for Carolina. You can make a gift to any part of the University that is meaningful to you — your major, a professorship, a student organization, scholarships and student aid, or campuswide programs. To make an immediate difference where it is needed the most, consider supporting the Chancellor's Unrestricted Fund.

All gifts to Carolina are included as participation in the Senior Campaign and Annual Fund. Thank you to those who have already made your gift! You can still give online at annualfund.unc.edu/gift or by mail to P.O. Box 309, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27514-0309. For more information about the Senior Campaign, visit annualfund.unc.edu/seniorcampaign.

WELCOME YOUNG ALUMNI!

As you transition from students to alumni, we encourage you to keep up with young alumni events and Carolina news through the Carolina Annual Fund's young alumni social media: Facebook (UNCYoungAlumni), Instagram (@UNCYoungAlumni), and Twitter (@UNCYoungAlumni).

Through our social media efforts you can connect with fellow recent Carolina graduates in your area, participate in local events and social activities, and help Carolina stay strong by advocating philanthropy and support for the University among your peers. For more information about young alumni programs, visit youngalumni.unc.edu.

CLASS OF 1964 CELEBRATES GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

As part of their 50th class reunion, representatives from Carolina's Class of 1964 will join the academic processional at commencement and will precede the undergraduates. Watch for these most recent inductees into the General Alumni Association's Old Students Club, who will be adorned in Carolina blue gowns and wearing medallions commemorating their golden anniversary reunion.

their society, blue or white. Because the chief marshal or chief ball manager represented the whole student body, not just his society, he wore both colors.

When the University fielded its first intercollegiate athletic teams in 1888, the question of what colors to wear had already been answered. Light blue and white had come to symbolize membership in the University, not in a single society.

THE UNIVERSITY SEAL

The University seal typically appears on diplomas and graduation materials, grade transcripts and documents that indicate accomplishment in or on behalf of the University.

The first seal of the University of North Carolina, designed in 1790, showed the face of Apollo and his emblem, the rising sun, used to symbolize the dawn of higher education in the state. The words "SIGUL UNIVERSITAT CAROL SEPTENT" (Seal of the University of North Carolina) surrounded the drawing.

A modification in 1895 added lighted torches of learning beside Apollo's profile. Two years later another alteration replaced Apollo's head with a shield on which the words Lux (light) and Libertas (liberty), separated by a white band running from the upper right to the lower left of the shield, appeared.

In the 1940s, some observers mistakenly claimed the white stripe on the shield was a bend sinister, a heraldic code that was demeaning. In truth, the stripe was a bar sinister and merely denoted a second or later son. Still, the direction of the stripe was reversed, removing any question of stigma.

Today's seal is the same as the 1897 version, except the stripe runs from the upper left to the lower right.

Doctor of Philosophy in the discipline of:
American Studies; Anthropology; Art History; Biochemistry and Biophysics; Bioinformatics and Computational Biology; Biology; Biomedical Engineering; Biostatistics; Business Administration; Cell and Developmental Biology; Cell and Molecular Physiology; Chemistry; City and Regional Planning; Classics; Communication Studies; Comparative Literature; Computer Science; Ecology; Economics; Education; English; Environmental Sciences and Engineering; Epidemiology; Genetics and Molecular Biology; Geography; Geological Sciences; Germanic Languages; German Studies; Health Behavior; Health Policy and Management; History; Human Movement Science; Information and Library Science; Marine Sciences; Mass Communication; Materials Science; Maternal and Child Health; Mathematics; Microbiology and Immunology; Musicology; Neurobiology; Nursing; Nutrition; Occupational Science; Oral Biology; Pathology; Pharmaceutical Sciences; Pharmacology; Philosophy; Physics; Political Science; Psychology; Public Policy; Religious Studies; Romance Languages and Literatures; School Psychology; Social Work; Sociology; Speech and Hearing Sciences; Statistics and Operations Research; Toxicology

Doctor of Public Health in the discipline of:
Biostatistics; Health Behavior; Health Policy and Management; Maternal and Child Health; Nutrition

PROFESSIONAL DEGREES

Doctor of Audiology

Doctor of Dental Surgery

Doctor of Education in the discipline of:
Curriculum and Instruction; Educational Leadership

Doctor of Medicine

Doctor of Pharmacy

Doctor of Physical Therapy

Juris Doctor

THE BELL TOWER

The Morehead–Patterson Memorial Bell Tower was given to the University in 1931 by John Motley Morehead III and Rufus Lenoir Patterson. Its 14-bell carillon rings both manually and electronically to call students to class, provide twilight music and serenade the dispersing crowd after football games. Rising 172 feet, the tower is surrounded by a hedge and lawn designed by William C. Coker, botany professor and creator of the campus Arboretum.

CANDIDATES for GRADUATE DEGREES

May 2014 | Degree candidates' names are followed by their area of major study, dissertation or project title and the name of their doctoral advisor.

The Graduate School

ESTABLISHED 1903
Dean Steven W. Matson

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

Michael A. Abel, Mathematics, Virtual Crossings and Filtrations in Link Homology. Professor Lev Rozansky.

Carlos Abreu Mendoza, Romance Languages and Literatures, Sublime Peligro: Naturaleza, Sujeto y Nacion en Latinoamerica. Professor Juan Carlos Gonzalez Espitia.

Elizabeth A. Adams, Psychology, The Developmental Influence of Skin Tone on Psychosocial Outcomes Among African American Youth. Professor Beth E. Kurtz-Costes.

Maria Merced Aleman, Pathology, Cellular and Plasma Protein Cross-talk in Arterial and Venous Thrombosis. Professor Alisa Wolberg.

Jena Abdullah Al-Fuhaid, English, Feminine-Centered History and the "Good Cause" in Mary Shelley's Perkin Warbeck. Professor Jeanne Moskal.

Deborah Dawn Hutchinson Allen, Nursing, Exploring Cognitive Reserve and Compensatory Behaviors Used to Maintain Executive Control Function in Adults with Primary Brain Tumors. Professor Virginia J. Neelon.

Justin Allman, Mathematics, K-Classes of Quiver Cycles, Grothendieck Polynomials, and Iterated Residues. Professor Richard Rimanyi.

Kate R. Allman, Education, Reading the Middle East: A Critical Discourse Analysis of Classroom Literacy Events around Persepolis. Professor Julie E. Justice.

Monique Ahinee Amamoo, Epidemiology, Impact of Automatic Reporting of Estimated Glomerular Filtration on Chronic Kidney Disease Detection and Patient Care in a Hospital Setting. Professor Gerardo Heiss.

Neil David Anderson, Romance Languages and Literatures, Microgeographies: Galician Narratives of Place (2004–2012). Professor Samuel Amago.

Sarah Andres, Cell and Molecular Physiology, Expression Patterns and Roles of the Insulin Receptor in the Intestinal Epithelium. Professor P. Kay Lund.

Mercedes Baillargeon, Romance Languages and Literatures, Aesthetics and Politics of Contemporary Women's "Autofiction." Professor Dominique D. Fisher.

Deepali Bang, Cell and Developmental Biology, Oncogenic KRAS, GSK-3, NF-kappaB and TBK1: The Interplay and Consequences in Promoting Pancreatic and Lung Cancer. Professor Albert S. Baldwin.

Sarah Ayako Barksdale, History, Prelude to a Revolution: African American World War II Veterans, Double Consciousness, and Civil Rights 1940–1955. Professor Richard H. Kohn.

Lisa Barnard, Mass Communication, The Cost of Creepiness: How Online Behavioral Advertising Affects Consumer Purchase Intention. Professor Maria Leonora Comello.

Rebecca Nancy Bauer, Toxicology, The Role of the Inflammasome in the Respiratory Innate Immune Response to Viruses and Pollutants: Insights for Asthma Pathogenesis. Professor Ilona Jaspers.

Janel Nikol Beckham, Communication Studies, The Value of a Pint: A Cultural Economy of American Beer. Professor Lawrence Grossberg.

Erik Arthur Bentsen, Education, Utilizing Collaborative Reading Groups and Coaching as Social Skills Interventions for Students with Emotional/Behavioral Disabilities. Professor Karen Erickson.

Russell Bither-Terry, Political Science, Zero Hunger: The Politics of Anti-Hunger Policy in Brazil. Professor Evelyne Huber.

Krysta Leigh Black, Art History, Sacred History and Christian Kingship in the Leon Bible of 960. Professor Dorothy H. Verkerk.

Amanda Kay Bock, Education, Comprehensive Literacy Instruction in Self-Contained Special Education Classrooms: Epistemology and Practice. Professor Karen A. Erickson.

Ashley Summer Boyd, Education, Contradictions in Teaching: A Collective Case Study of Teachers' Social Justice Literacies in Middle and Secondary English Classrooms. Professors Jocelyn A. Glazier and Julie E. Justice.

Friederike Bruehoefener, History, Defining the West German Soldier: Military, Masculinity and Society in West Germany, 1945–1989. Professor Karen Hagemann.

Raquel Alexandra Burger-Calderon, Microbiology and Immunology, The BK Virus and HIV-Associated Salivary Gland Disease: Corroborating the Link. Professor Jennifer Webster-Cyriaque.

Stephen James Bush, Bioinformatics and Computational Biology, SNAPP, CRACLe, PoPP: Predicting Protein Interactions. Professor Alexander Tropsha.

John Douglas Calaway, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Genetic Regulation of Epigenetic Processes in Mouse: DNA Methylation and X Chromosome Inactivation. Professor Terry Magnuson.

Colin Scott Campbell, Sociology, Three Studies on the Determinants and Consequences of Poverty. Professor Arne L. Kalleberg.

Jaime Nicole Campbell, Biochemistry and Biophysics, The XMAP215 Family Drives Microtubule Polymerization Using a Structurally Diverse TOG Array. Professor Kevin C. Slep.

Kasemsiri Chandarajoti, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Utilizing a Chemoenzymatic Method for Synthetic Heparin Targeting Factor Xa and P-selectin. Professor Jian Liu.

Ling-Yin Chang, Health Behavior, Examining the Direct, Indirect and Moderated Effects of Neighborhood Characteristics on Trajectories of Dating Violence Perpetration. Professor Vangie A. Foshee.

Marta Szmacinski Charpentier, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Characterization of the CASZ1-Dependent Mechanisms Underlying Vertebrate Blood Vessel Development. Professor Frank L. Conlon.

Chidsanuphong Chart-asa, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, Quantifying Health Impacts of Traffic-Related Fine Particulate Air Pollution at the Urban Project Scale. Professor Jacqueline MacDonald Gibson.

Morgan Chateau, Microbiology and Immunology, Prevention of HIV Transmission. Professor Victor Garcia.

Ritwik Chaudhuri, Statistics and Operations Research, Non-Gaussian Semi-Stable Distributions and Their Statistical Applications. Professor Vladas Pipiras.

Martha Ann Clark, Microbiology and Immunology, Iron Deficiency and Iron Supplementation Conspire to Mediate Susceptibility to Erythrocytic Stage Plasmodium falciparum Infection. Professor Steven R. Meshnick.

Lara-Jeane Croker Costa, Education, The Relations among the Development of Written Language and Executive Functions in Elementary Aged Students. Professor Jeffrey A. Greene.

Elicia Parker Cowins, Business Administration, Does Hedge Accounting Reflect Firms' Risk Management Activities? Professor Wayne R. Landsman.

Christopher J. Cronin, Economics, Insurance-Induced Moral Hazard: A Dynamic Model of Within-Year Medical Care Decision Making under Uncertainty. Professor Donna B. Gilleskie.

Jennifer Lynne Cronin, Communication Studies, Speaking the Unspeakable: Adult Children's Revelations of Unwed Pregnancy to Parents. Professor Lawrence B. Rosenfeld.

Sean Curtis, Computer Science, Pedestrian Velocity Obstacles: Pedestrian Simulation Through Reasoning in Velocity Space. Professor Dinesh Manocha.

Corey Leigh Cusack, Neurobiology, The Molecular Intersection between Axon-Specific Pruning and Neuronal Apoptosis. Professor Mohanish Deshmukh.

Sarah Dababnah, Social Work, Pilot Trial of the Incredible Years for Parents of Preschool Children with Autism Spectrum Disorder. Professor Susan L. Parish.

Elyse Cathleen Dankoski, Neurobiology, Dynamic Modulation of In Vivo Serotonin Signaling. Professor R. Mark Wightman.

Nicole Lane Davis, Epidemiology, Adherence-Related Mechanisms of Breastmilk HIV-1 Transmission. Professor William C. Miller.

Dinuka M. De Silva, Pathology, Role of Androgen Receptor Co-Repressor SLIRP in Cell Cycle Regulation. Professor Young E. Whang.

Nathan Dean, Political Science, Balancing the Plurality of Liberal Values. Professor Jeff Spinner-Halev.

Kari Moore Debbink, Microbiology and Immunology, Mechanisms of GII.4 Norovirus Antigenic Variation and Evolution. Professor Ralph S. Baric.

Finnur Dellsen, Philosophy, The Epistemology of Science: Acceptance, Explanation, and Realism. Professor Marc B. Lange.

John P. Didion, *Bioinformatics and Computational Biology,*Genetic Analysis of Meiotic Drive Systems in the Mouse Using Genotyping Arrays. Professor Fernando Pardo-Manuel de Villena.

Gauri Dixit, Biochemistry and Biophysics, Regulation of Cell Morphogenesis by Targeted Noise Suppression and Trafficking of a G Protein Alpha Subunit. Professor Henrik G. Dohlman.

Daniel I. Dominguez, Pharmacology, Transcriptome Dynamics During the Mammalian Cell Cycle. Professor Zefeng Wang.

Jonathan Macdougal Duncan, Geography, Spatial and Temporal Scaling of Nitrogen Cycling and Export: Resolving Three Paradoxes for a Forested Piedmont Watershed. Professor Lawrence E. Band.

Lindsay M. Dunn, Art History, A Revolutionary Empress in the Age of Napolean: Marie-Louise, Archduchess of Austria, Empress of the French, and Duchess of Parma, Piacenza, and Guastalla (1791–1847). Professor Mary D. Sheriff.

Darin Sean Earnest, Education, Calculating Item Discrimination Values Using Samples of Examinee Scores around Real and Anticipated Cut Scores: Effects on Item Discrimination, Item Selection, Examination Reliability and Classification Decision Consistency. Professor Gregory J. Cizek.

Ryan Scott Ebright, Musicology, Echoes of the Avant-Garde in American Minimalist Opera. Professor Mark Katz.

Cihat Eldeniz, Biomedical Engineering , Quantitative MR T1 Measurements with TOWERS: T-One with Enhanced Robustness and Speed. Professor Weili Lin.

Emily A. Elstad, Health Behavior, Cancer Screening Benefits and Harms: News Coverage and Provider Perceptions. Professor Noel T. Brewer.

Justin Gregory English, Pharmacology, Decoding the Yeast Stress Adaptation Circuit. Professor Henrik G. Dohlman.

Leila Family, Epidemiology, Associations Between Genetic Polymorphisms in DNA Bypass Polymerases and Base Excision Repair Genes with the Risk of Breast Cancer. Professor Andrew F. Olshan.

Keturah R. Faurot, Epidemiology, Botanical Dietary Supplement Use Among Hispanic/Latino Adults in the Hispanic Community Health Study/Study of Latinos: Comparison of a Diet-vs.-Medication-Based Survey. Professor Anna Maria Siega-Riz.

Leslie C. Fox, Education, Physical Activity and Adolescent Girls with ASD: Effects of an Individualized Exercise Program on Cognitive, Social and Physical Health Indicators. Professor Samuel L. Odom.

Cynthia Michelle Fraga, Social Work, The Coping Efforts of Intimate Partner Violence Survivors: Review of the Literature, Exploratory Inquiry and Scale Development. Professor Rebecca J. Macy.

Eric Matthew Francisco, Biomedical Engineering, Cortical Diagnostics: Measuring Brain Health Through Somatosensation. Professor Mark Tommerdahl.

Matthew Martin Franke, Musicology, The Impact of Jules Massenet's Operas in Milan, 1893–1903. Professor John L Nadas.

David T. Frazier, Economics, Essays on Iterative and Two-Step Estimators with Applications to Financial Econometrics. Professor Eric Renault.

John Douglas Gallemore, Business Administration, Does Bank Opacity Enable Regulatory Forbearance? Professor Edward L. Maydew.

George C. Gerolimatos, History, Structural Change and Democratization of Schleswig-Holstein's Agriculture, 1945–1973. Professor Christopher Browning.

Yunchao Gong, Computer Science, Large-Scale Image Retrieval Using Similarity Preserving Binary Codes. Professor Svetlana Lazebnik.

Vincent Michael Gonzalez, Religious Studies, Born Again Digital: Exploring Evangelical Video Game Worlds. Professor Yaakov Ariel.

Rodrigo Javier Gonzalez, Microbiology and Immunology, Dissemination of Yersinia pestis During Bubonic Plague. Professor Virginia L. Miller.

Megan Goodwin, Religious Studies, Good Fences: American Sexual Exceptionalism and Minority Religions. Professor Randall Styers.

Kenneth Max Gorfkle, Romance Languages and Literatures, The Intersection of Life and Death in David Rosenmann-Taub's Tetralogy Cortejo y Epinicio. Professor Rosa P. Perelmuter.

Jean-Marc Grandjean, Chemistry, Anti-Markovnikov Hydrofluorination, Hydrooxysulfonylation and Hydration of Styrenes. Photoredox Catalytic Polar-Radical Crossover Cycloaddition of Olefins and Allylic Nucleophiles. Professor David A. Nicewicz.

David Grawoig, Chemistry, SAR by SHAPE: Towards Small Molecules that Target RNA. Professor Kevin M. Weeks.

Jeffrey Earl Gray, Toxicology, Decoding Mechanisms of Loss of Fertilization Ability of Cryopreserved Mouse Sperm. Professor Terry Magnuson.

Nicole Gabrielle Griffin, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Genetic Analysis of Complex and Mendelian Diseases. Professor Kirk C. Wilhelmsen.

Laura Gutmann, Education, How Teacher Evaluation Shapes Conceptions of Good Practice: Policy Intention, Implementation and Interpretation. Professor Jocelyn Glazier.

Kathryn Esther Hacker, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Investigating the role of SETD2 Mutations and H3K36me3 Loss in Clear Cell Renal Cell Carcinoma. Professor W. Kimryn Rathmell.

Nicole Anne Hagan, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, Residential Mercury Contamination and Exposure in Huancavelica, Peru. Professor Jason West.

Aaron Todd Hale-Dorrell, History, Khrushchev's Corn Crusade: The Industrial Ideal and Agricultural Practice in the Era of Post-Stalin Reform, 1953–1964. Professor Donald J. Raleigh.

Matthew W. Halvorsen, Bioinformatics and Computational Biology, Disease Associated Mutations and Functional Variants that Significantly Disrupt RNA Structure. Professor Alain Laederach.

Daniel Elliott Harper, Psychology, Psychophysical Examination of the Thermal Grill Illusion. Professor Mark Hollins.

Scott C. Hauswirth, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, Physicochemical Approaches for the Remediation of Manufactured Gas Plant Tar in Porous Media. Professor Cass T. Miller.

Elizabeth A. Hennessy, Geography, On the Backs of Tortoises: Conserving Evolution in the Galapagos Islands. Professor Wendy Wolford.

Elizabeth Eve Hibberd, Human Movement Science, Effect of Swim Training on Physical Characteristics and Pain in Competitive Adolescent Swimmers. Professor Joseph B. Myers.

Philip John Homan, Chemistry, High-Throughput Analysis of RNA Tertiary Structure and Interactions. Professor Kevin M. Weeks.

Bethany Jablonski Horton, Biostatistics, Test-Dependent Sampling Design and Semi-Parametric Inference for the ROC Curve. Professor Haibo Zhou.

Carolyn Susan Huffman, Nursing, The Meaning of Miscarriage: Measurement, Reproductive Factors, and Trajectories in Couple Dyads. Professor Kristen Swanson.

Rachel M. Hynson, History, Sex and State Making in Revolutionary Cuba, 1959–1968. Professor Kathryn J. Burns.

Samantha Leigh Isenberg, Chemistry, Improvements in Mass Spectrometric Analyses with Differential Ion Mobility Spectrometry. Professor Gary L. Glish.

Sara Rubin Jacobs, Health Policy and Management, Multilevel Predictors of Cancer Clinical Trial Enrollment among CCOP Physicians. Professor Bryan J. Weiner.

Elizabeth T. Jensen, Epidemiology, Pharmacologic Sex Hormone Use Before and in Early Pregnancy in Relation to Birth and Early Childhood Anthropometric Outcomes. Professor Julie Daniels.

Kara L. Jensen, Microbiology and Immunology, Characterization of a Novel Mycobacterium Tuberculosis-Simian Immunodeficiency Virus Vaccine to Prevent Oral Pediatric HIV Transmission. Professor Kristina Abel.

Brian Donovan Johnson, Romance Languages and Literatures, The Rhetorical Use of Animals in Early Modern French Literature. Professor Hassan Melehy.

Monica Perez Jolles, Health Policy and Management, Increasing Community and Family Participation in Child Welfare Agencies as a Way to Improve Families' Use of Health Services. Professor Rebecca Wells.

Jordan D. Kern, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, Dynamic Hydrologic and Economic Modeling of Tradeoffs in Hydroelectric Systems. Professor Gregory Characklis.

Zachary Yukio Kerr, Epidemiology, The Association of Concussion History and Mental Health in Former Collegiate Athletes. Professor Stephen W. Marshall.

Jessica Rachel Keys, Epidemiology, Minority Drug Resistant Variants of HIV-1 and Response to Early Combination Therapy. Professor Charlie Poole.

Mona Kilany, Health Policy and Management, Patient-Centered Medical Homes for Patients with Severe Mental Illness: Utilization and Quality of Care Variation in Rural Areas. Professor Joseph Morrissey.

Changhyun Kim, Business Administration, Governance Mechanisms and Shareholder Value. Professor Richard A. Bettis.

Martha Elizabeth King, Anthropology, Cultural Contexts of Health and Illness Among the Lancaster Amish. Professor Dorothy Holland.

Hanna Kleider, Political Science, Decentralization and the Welfare State: Territorial Disparities, Regional Governments and Political Parties. Professor John D. Stephens.

Anna L. Krome-Lukens, History, The Reform Imagination: Gender, Eugenics and the Welfare State in North Carolina, 1900–1940. Professor Jacquelyn D. Hall.

Elizabeth Marie Holdsworth La, Health Policy and Management, The Systemic Effects of a State Psychiatric Hospital Waitlist Policy on Mental Health Services Use. Professor Joseph Morrissey.

Lance Elliot Lagroue, History, Accounting and Auditing in Roman Society. Professor Richard Talbert.

Christopher Andrew Lavender, Chemistry, RNA Structure Prediction Using High-Throughput Chemical Modification Techniques. Professor Kevin M. Weeks.

Daniel Mark Layman, Philosophy, John Locke's Republicanism. Professor Gerald J. Postema.

Kaitlin Christine Lenhart, Pathology, The Rho-GAP GRAF1 Regulates Skeletal Muscle Maturation and Repair. Professor Joan M. Taylor.

Yanjun Liu, Education, Teachers' In-the-Moment Noticing of Students' Mathematical Thinking: A Case Study of Two Teachers. Professor Susan N. Friel.

Belinda L. Locke, Education, Modeling Relations Between Adolescents' Perceptions of the School's Social Context, Academic and Social Self-Concept of Ability Beliefs, and Student Engagement. Professor Judith Meece.

Matthew Warren Lowder, Psychology, Effects of Sentence Structure on Processing of Complex Semantic Expressions. Professor Peter C. Gordon.

Derek Severi Lundberg, Genetics and Molecular Biology, Root-Associated Bacterial Communities as an Extended Phenotype of the Plant. Professor Jeff L. Dangl.

Kenneth MacCabe, Physics, X-ray Scatter Tomography Using Coded Apertures. Professor Otto Zhou.

Madisa Macon, Toxicology, Mechanistic Pathways Underlying Low-Dose Perfluorooctanoic Acid (PFOA) Effects in Murine Mammary Tissues. Professor Suzanne E Fenton.

Margaret C. Martin, History, Creating an American Way of Mobilization: The Federal System and Wartime Mobilization in North Carolina During the War of 1812. Professor Wayne E. Lee.

Maria I. Martinez, Psychology, Young Latino Children at Risk for Psychopathology: Effects of Maternal Depressive Symptoms on Child Behavior. Professor Eric A. Youngstrom.

Lindsey Haynes Maslow, Health Policy and Management, Access to Fruits and Vegetables for Low-Income Individuals: A Mixed Methods Study to Healthy Eating. Professor Pam Silberman.

Catherine Massie, English, Romantic Frames of Mind: Vision and Sympathy in British Novels of the 19th Century. Professor Joseph S. Viscomi.

Bevin Laurel Maultsby, Mathematics, The Geometry of Radial States in Nonlinear Elliptic Problems. Professor Christopher K.R.T. Jones.

Ashley Michelle Mays, History, A Past Still Living: The Grieving Process of Confederate Widows. Professor Joseph T. Glatthaar.

Marta McCabe, Education, Parental Experiences with Children's Heritage Language Maintenance and Loss: Cases of Eleven Czech and Slovak Transnational Immigrant Families in the Southeastern United States. Professor Xue Lan Rong.

Jinghan Meng, Business Administration, Skewness and Dispersion of Opinions and the Cross Section of Stock Returns. Professor Riccardo Colacito and Eric Ghysels.

Louis Ari Merlin, City and Regional Planning, Accessibility, Travel Behavior, and Urban Form Change. Professor Yan Song.

Luke William Mills, English, Religious Oaths in the Chaucerian Fabliaux. Professor Joseph S. Wittig.

John Justin Milner, Nutrition, The Immunological Consequences of Obesity on Primary and Secondary Immune Defenses to the 2009 Pandemic H1N1 Influenza Virus. Professor Melinda A. Beck.

Warren Eugene Milteer, History, The Complications of Liberty: Free People of Color in North Carolina from the Colonial Period Through Reconstruction. Professors Kathleen DuVal and Malinda Maynor Lowery.

Estephan Jose Moana-Filho, Oral Biology, Brain Micro- and Macro-Structural Characteristics Investigation in Fibromyalgia Using Multi-Modal Magnetic Resonance Imaging. Professor Richard H. Gracely.

Amanda Jean Moffett, Physics and Astronomy, Disk Regrowth in E/S0 Galaxies and Its Environmental Dependence. Professor Sheila Kannappan.

Chad Henderson Morgan, Information and Library Science, Craft and Job Satisfaction: North Carolina Library and Information Science Graduates. Professor Joanne G. Marshall.

Meghan Lynn Morgan-Smith, Neurobiology, GSK-3 Regulation of Migration and Morphogenesis in the Developing Cortex. Professor William D. Snider.

Kaiji Motegi, Economics, Granger Causality in Mixed Frequency Time Series. Professor Eric Ghysels.

Lee B.Mullin, Biomedical Engineering , Ultrasound Mediated Nanoparticle Drug Delivery. Professor Paul A. Dayton.

Rebecca L. Nesvet, English, The Vanishing Voyager and the Emerging Outsider, 1818–1930. Professor Jeanne Moskal.

Richard Hajime Nguyen, Biomedical Engineering , Applications of Sensory Perceptual Metrics to Screen, to Track Changes In, and to Differentiate Clinical Populations. Professor Mark A. Tommerdahl.

Tien Minh Nguyen, Chemistry, Development of Two Organocatalytic Photoredox Transformers: The Enantioselective Cation Radical Diels-Alder Reaction and the Anti-Markovnikov Hydroamination of Alkenes. Professor David A. Nicewicz.

Aaron Hugh Nile, Cell and Developmental Biology, Chemical Inhibitors of Phosphatidylinositol Transfer Proteins Enable Highly Selective Interference with Specific Pathways of Phosphoinositide Signaling in Cells. Professor Vytas A. Bankaitis.

Katherine E. Nolfi, Philosophy, Understanding Epistemic Normativity. Professor Ram Neta.

Theresa A. O'Meara, Environmental Sciences and Engineering, Anthropogenic Effects on Estuarine Shoreline Primary Productivity and Nutrient Cycling. Professor Michael F. Piehler.

Christopher Dennis Packey, Microbiology and Immunology, Disruption of Complex Enteric Commensal Microbial Communities and Their Mutualistic Functions with the Host Contributes to the Severity of Common Intestinal Disorders and Serves as a Promising Therapeutic Target. Professor R. Balfour Sartor.

Kyle Ann Palmquist, Ecology, Community Assembly and Vegetation Patterns Across Space and Time in the Longleaf Pine Ecosystem. Professor Robert K. Peet.

Monita Ramesh Patel, Epidemiology, A Study of CD4-Stratified Timing of Antiretroviral Therapy Among Patients Receiving Integrated Tuberculosis and HIV Treatment in a Highly Resource-Limited Setting. Professor Annelies Van Rie.

John Culver Pelton, Biology, An aPKCĐ-Dependent Two-Tip-Cell Topology Aids in Establishing Polarity of Angiogenic Sprouts. Professor Victoria L. Bautch.

Lei Peng, Pharmaceutical Sciences, Taxane Conjugate Nanoparticles for Improved Non-Small Cell Lung Cancer Treatment in a Novel Orthotopic Mouse Model. Professor Russell J. Mumper.

Jessica Kadis Pepper, Health Behavior, Electronic Cigarettes: Diffusion of a Controversial Innovation. Professor Noel T. Brewer.

Jessica Leigh Petrick, Epidemiology, Dietary Intake of Flavonoids, Barrett's Esophagus Development, and Esophageal and Gastric Cancer Incidence and Survival. Professor Marilie D. Gammon.

Chelsea Jacqueline Phillips, Political Science, The Role of Political Similarity in Romantic Relationships. Professor Thomas M. Carsey.

MUSIC

Graduates, families and friends attending Commencement will hear the University's beloved "Hark the Sound" and James Taylor's classic "Carolina in My Mind." These songs evoke the feelings of loyalty and friendship that students, alumni and true blue Tar Heels everywhere have for the University. But the orchestral marches that accompany the commencement processionals are equally memorable for their power and splendor. They are truly fitting musical celebrations of the talent and achievements of UNC–Chapel Hill's visiting dignitaries, faculty and graduates.

During the Commencement ceremony, members of the academic processional will be welcomed by the fanfare brass, woodwinds and drums of Nikolai Rimsky-Korsakov's "Procession of the Nobles" and Richard Strauss' "Königsmarsch." Rimsky-Korsakov wrote his majestic march to open the second act of the opera-ballet "Mlada," which premiered in Saint Petersburg, Russia, in 1892. Strauss premiered the flourishing "Königsmarsch" at a palace concert in Berlin in 1907.

The new graduates will exit the ceremony while hearing familiar Carolina melodies in "Tar Heel Rhapsody," a composition written specifically for the University that features its school songs.

DEGREES WITH DISTINCTION

To graduate with distinction or with highest distinction, undergraduate students must have completed at least 45 academic hours at UNC–Chapel Hill and have an overall grade point average of at least 3.5 or 3.8, respectively.

HONORS CAROLINA

Honors Carolina is an outstanding collection of courses, special events, and learning opportunities geared toward the top students at Carolina. It is the University's way of investing in exceptional undergraduate students by providing academic and non-academic challenges and opportunities, both inside and outside the classroom. Honors Carolina students receive priority registration for more than 160 Honors courses each year. These are small classes, taught by professors who encourage classroom discussion and hands-on research.

Students who wish to graduate from Carolina "with Honors" or "with Highest Honors" must complete a senior honors thesis project in their major field(s) of study. Such students need not have been members of Honors Carolina. They must, however, meet academic eligibility standards set by Honors Carolina and the individual departments, curricula, and professional schools that sponsor senior honors thesis programs. Senior honors thesis students must complete an original and substantial research, performance, or creative project under direct supervision by a faculty advisor. Upon the completion of their projects, students must pass an oral examination or other appropriate form of evaluation.

ACADEMIC DRESS

The following information, based in part on An Academic Costume Code and Ceremony Guide (published by the American Council on Education), may be helpful in identifying academic attire worn during UNC's Commencement exercises.

DEGREE CANDIDATES' REGALIA. The University's bachelor's gown is both Carolina blue and truly green, as in sustainably made. The fabric for the True Blue gown is made from 100 percent post-consumer recycled plastic bottles (23 bottles for each gown) and is manufactured at mills in the Carolinas. The information about the gown's sustainability is suitably printed directly on the cloth, without the use of an extra label. In addition to being dyed a custom Carolina blue color, the True Blue gowns also have a more streamlined fit, white piping along the yoke and two white panels in front. The tassels are blue and white, topped with a silver-colored Old Well medallion. An optional accessory is an embroidered white stole that the graduate may give to a parent in gratitude after the Commencement ceremony.

The untrimmed, black master's gown has a hood and an oblong sleeve, open at the wrist, that hangs nearly to the ground; the back part of its oblong shape is square cut and the arc in the front is cut away. The hooded doctoral gown features three bars across each sleeve. In 1999, the Faculty Council authorized a special doctoral gown for Carolina graduates. It is Carolina blue, with facings and crossbars of dark blue outlined in white piping. The facings bear the shield of the University supported by the torches of learning.

The hoods of master's and doctoral degree candidates vary in color according to the field of study (see list below).

FACULTY REGALIA. Faculty wear the regalia of the institution that conferred their highest degree. The doctoral gowns are usually faced with black velvet, although the color of the velvet may vary according to the field of study. Hoods, which differ in length according to the level of the degree held, are lined with official colors of the university or college that conferred the degree, usually with one color forming a chevron pattern over the other. Some colors you will see on faculty and administrators' robes are, for example, the crimson of Harvard, the maroon of Chicago, the orange and black of Princeton, the dark blue of Yale, and the light blue and white of North Carolina.

Like the hoods of master's and doctoral degree candidates, faculty hoods are edged and bound with velvet in the color appropriate to the field of study. The colors in the hoods and gowns of faculty and administrators represent the following fields in which degrees were taken:

APRICOT: Nursing
BROWN: Fine Arts
CITRON: Social Work
CRIMSON: Journalism
DARK BLUE: Philosophy
GOLDEN YELLOW: Science
GREEN: Medicine
LEMON YELLOW: Library Science
LIGHT BLUE: Education
LILAC: Dentistry
OLIVE GREEN: Pharmacy
ORANGE: Engineering
PEACOCK BLUE: Public Administration
PINK: Music
PURPLE: Law
SAGE GREEN: Physical Education
SALMON PINK: Public Health
SCARLET: Theology
YELLOW BROWN: Commerce, Business, Accountancy
WHITE: Arts, Letters, Humanities
